

"Originally from Russell, Manitoba, Charmaine is a classically trained pianist, organist, and flutist. She obtained her B.Mus. and M.Mus. degrees at the University of Manitoba and University of Toronto and studied at The Glenn Gould School. Charmaine is currently pianist for Margaret's Choir, Joie de Vivre, and the Winnipeg Jewish Chorus. She is a freelance organist in the city, and has previously held posts as music director and organist in Toronto and Winnipeg. Charmaine is a regular clinician in schools across the province, and enjoys working with students of all ages in her private studio in St. James-Assiniboia. She co-curated the Wind Chamber Concert Series at Crescent Fort Rouge United and regularly performs in the series."
